RURAL WELFARE DEPARTMENT.

G.O.Ms.1170. Dated 18th September 1953.

Read:

G.O.Ms.No.671, Rural Welfare dated 2.7.51.

ORDER:-

In the G.O. cited the Centre Khadi Officers in charge of Intensive Khadi Centres to open "Personal Deposits" - and "Revenue Deposits" account with the respective sub-treasuries concerned and it was also ordered that the proforma accounts relating to the transactions of each spinner, weaver etc be maintained in the Intensive Khadi centres alone. The Government now direct that the deposits received under the Khadi Scheme do lapse to the Government when the time limit fixed below for each deposit is exceeded, and the amounts are not claimed within the time limit fixed.

Deposits taken from spinners for repayment in the form of cloth on a future date.	Three years from the date of on which the last item of deposit was collected.

Deposits taken from Weavers, Dhobies and Carders.	Three years from the date on which the weaver, dhoby or carder ceased to have connection with the centre.
